Teen dating abuse is a pattern of physically, sexually, verbally, and/or emotionally abusive or controlling behavior in a dating relationship.

Warning signs someone may be experiencing abuse: ♦

- * Their partner calls them names or puts them down in front of others.
- * Their partner gets extremely jealous when they talk to other people.
- * They apologize for their partner's behavior and make excuses for it.
- * They frequently cancel plans at the last minute for reasons that sound untrue or they give up things they used to enjoy doing.
- * Their partner is always checking up, calling or texting and demanding to know who they're with and where they've been.
- * They're constantly worried about upsetting their partner or making them angry.
- * Their weight, appearance or grades have changed dramatically.
- * They have injuries they can't explain or the explanations they give don't make sense.

Warning signs from someone who may be an abuser: ♦♦

- * They check their partner's cell phones, emails or social networks without permission.
- * They are extremely jealous or insecure, and have mood swings.
- * They constantly put their partner down.
- * They have an explosive temper and constantly make false accusations.
- * They isolate partner from family and friends.
- * They are physically violent.
- * They are possessive.
- * They pressure partner to have sex.

How Can I help my friend? ♦♦

- 1) Start the Conversation - "It's not your fault." "You don't deserve this."
- 2) Be Supportive - "I am glad you told me." "What do you need?"
- 3) Keep Your Communication Door Open - "I am here for you."
- 4) Get Support.
